Intermediate English

English-speaking teachers play a pivotal role in language education, offering students a unique opportunity for immersive and authentic language learning experiences. The presence of a teacher proficient in English not only provides a model for correct pronunciation, grammar, and usage but also brings cultural context and real-world applications to the language.

The ability to communicate fluently in English allows teachers to explain concepts clearly, provide immediate feedback, and engage in meaningful interactions with students.

This Level B1 English course enables participants to understand the main points of clear standard language texts on familiar matters such as work, study and leisure. The level to be developed will enable the learner to deal mainly with situations which may arise, for example, when travelling in areas where the language is used.

To take this level it is necessary to have a minimum level of A2

Skills at level B1

- He/she is able to understand the main points of clear texts in standard language if they are about topics with which they are familiar, whether in work, study or leisure contexts.
- He/she can cope with most of the situations that might arise on a trip to areas where the language is used.
- He/she is able to produce simple, coherent texts about topics with which they are familiar or in which they have a personal interest.
- He/She can describe experiences, events, wishes and aspirations, as well as briefly justifying opinions or explaining plans.

Course description

This Level B1 English course enables participants to understand the main points of clear standard language texts on familiar matters such as work, study and leisure.

The course units and tasks will enable participants to understand oral discourse of a certain complexity, to express themselves fluently on concrete, abstract or professional topics, to interact very fluently in everyday or business conversations and to write coherent texts on a variety of subjects (experiences, events, wishes, aspirations, plans and opinions).

This Level B1 English course provides students with the necessary skills to develop an advanced level of oral and written comprehension and expression of the English language.

Enjoy training... and Andalusia

Obviously, training is a key aspect, but the environment makes the experience complete. That's why Cordoba is the best possible setting, the only city in the world with four World Heritage Sites by UNESCO, a city steeped in history and culture, and also the ideal place to discover Andalusia.

Less than an hour away by train you can enjoy the bewitching Seville, the cosmopolitan Malaga and the haunting Granada, as well as having some of the best beaches just two hours away by car. All in the best connected city in Spain by high-speed train, 1.45 minutes from Madrid and in the centre of Spain's most charming region. Are you going to miss it?

How to get to Córdoba?

Córdoba has no airport, but there are excellent connections to our city from three international airports thanks to the AVE (High Speed Train):

- Madrid. 400 kilometres, 1.45 hours to Córdoba by train.
- Seville. 130 kilometres, 45 minutes to Córdoba by train.
- Málaga. 145 kilometres. 50 minutes to Córdoba by train.

Málaga is the best option, due to the high amount and variety of international destinations and the facilities to link your flight to the train.

Madrid International Airport Adolfo Suárez is the biggest airport in Spain and it has connections with all the important destinations in Europe. Flights use to be cheaper and both the frequency and the options are higher, so it is also a good chance.

Seville is another option, though destinations and frequencies are not the best. Check if it fits your plans.

Train. There are different companies offering connections from and to Madrid, Málaga and Sevilla to Córdoba. The sooner you book, the cheaper!!

- RENFE (www.renfe.es). In trains from and to Seville or Málaga, you will find AVE and AVANT. The service is the same, though this last one is cheaper. It happens the same from Madrid with AVE and ALVIA.
- IRYO. (<https://iryo.eu>). Cheap tickets if booked with months in advance.
- AVLO (<https://avlorenfe.com>). From June 1st 2023. Renfe low cost brand.
